

Get out of the water!

Good news! They've managed to get the flesh-eating shrimp out of Blunt Swimming Pool!

Bad news! It's now full of the vicious black eels that are only usually found in the river Blunt.

Peaches has found out that Oswald Tripe will be one of the first to use the pool so she has ordered Root and Berry to collect as many eels as they can and dump them in the pool before he arrives.

Right now, Indigo is on the roof of the pillow factory over by The Elbow. He's got to get to the swimming pool before Oswald does. The only problem is that Root and Berry haven't been able to agree on the best route to take home, so they're having a huge argument on Mange Close. So Indigo will have to avoid this street if he wants to make it to the pool in time.

What's the best route to take?
