

Jurassic Prank!

Indigo is in Cheddar's Curry House enjoying one of Blunt's most famous meals – Cheddar's squid jalfrezi. Polly calls him on the headset to tell him that Root has built a remote controlled Pterodactyl. Right now, it's sitting on the spire of the Cathedral of St. Dolores of the Unending Sorrows over on Ingratitude Street.

At any minute, Lucy Jones is about to walk past the cathedral on her way to Derange Street, and Peaches and her sisters plan to send the Pterodactyl down to attack her. She's absolutely terrified of all flying animals.

If Root succeeds, Lucy will pass out from fright. How can Indigo get from Cheddar's to the cathedral in time to grab the robot dino?

Peaches is determined to get Lucy, so she's waiting at the corner of Adenoid Terrace and Long Nose Street with a pair of binoculars. Whatever route Indigo takes, he has to avoid her!
